Follow Bluebonnet order

Bluebonnet Learning sets the unit order for Grade 4 reading language arts. This guide keeps that order and adds the Teach BIG deck weeks that fit each unit. Start with the unit you are teaching, open the deck set and week listed there, and use the ten slides as your editing or revising work for that week.

Each deck week is one sheet of ten slides. Use it as a week of bell work, a short writing warm up, or a small group lesson. The week numbers in this guide are the deck week numbers, so Week 14 means the ten slides labeled Week 14 in that deck.

The guide uses three deck sets:

- Editing. A 36 week spiral deck. It repeats sentence agreement, singular and common nouns, and high-frequency spelling across the year.
- Editing Part Two. A 46 week deck. Each week teaches one 4.11(D) subpart in depth, from sentences and nouns to irregular verbs, adjectives, adverbs, prepositions, pronouns, conjunctions, capitalization, punctuation, and spelling. The last ten weeks are cumulative reviews and a final publication pass.
- Word Choice. A 36 week revising deck for 4.11(C). It covers precise verbs, specific nouns, vivid adjectives, connotation, and sensory words.

Every Grade 4 week in all three decks appears once in this guide. Every 4.11(D) subpart, i to xi, is taught in at least one unit. Bluebonnet gives coordinating conjunctions about three lessons all year, all in Unit 6, so that unit carries the whole conjunction sequence. The last page puts the whole year on one table.

What each unit section gives you

- Bluebonnet TEKS for this unit. The 4.11(C) and 4.11(D) subparts that Bluebonnet lists for the unit, with the day ranges from the pacing guide.
- Our decks for this unit. The Editing, Editing Part Two, and Word Choice weeks that teach those subparts, given as deck set and week number.
- Fill the gap. One or two extra decks for a skill Bluebonnet covers in only a few lessons, placed where the unit leaves room.

Where Bluebonnet names few editing TEKS, the unit section gives that space to a skill Bluebonnet teaches in only a few lessons. The pacing guide gives coordinating conjunctions about three lessons, pronouns about six, irregular past tense about six, prepositions about six, nouns about six, adjectives about seven, and adverbs about nine, so those skills carry the extra deck weeks.
